

“Breaking the Silence: Beginning the Healing”

THURSDAY MAY 10TH 2012 @ 1:15 – 2:45 p.m. 2nd Floor U.N. CHURCH CENTER, 777 UN PLAZA, 44th st. & 1st av.

sponsored by The Gray Panthers and co sponsored by International Presentation Association, Flying Eagle Woman, Longhouse Treaty Nations, The New Seminary, Congregation de Notre Dame, Council of Indigenous Peoples, ROC, UNANIMA–International, and YEWMBBA

A “TALKING CIRCLE” to address issues of ecological, social, and spiritual abuses sustained as a result of domestic policies and practices affecting Indigenous women and children. The goal is to facilitate a consciousness of healing in future conversations.

SPEAKERS:

VI WAGHIYI, Environmental Health & Justice Program Director, Alaska Community Action on Toxics

DR. CHUN-FENG JOY LIN, Director, National PingTung University of Education, Indigenous Education and Research Center

DR. YI-CHUN TRICIA LIN, Director, Women’s Studies Program, Southern Connecticut State University

SARAH EAGLE HEART, Missioner, Indigenous Ministries Mission, Episcopal Church

a light fare will be served from 12:45 – 1:15 p.m.