

OCCUPY WALL STREET AND DEFENDING OUR SOCIAL CONTRACT FOR THE CURRENT & FUTURE 99%

An Intergenerational Dialogue between Occupiers and their Supporters about Social Security, Medicare,
Medicaid, and Other Vital Social Programs

Did you know...?

Right now, Wall St. and their political enablers in Washington are pushing huge cuts to social programs for the 99%. They want to privatize many of them, and instead preserve and extend EVEN MORE tax cuts for the 1%.

MON. NOV. 21

at the United Federation of Teachers

52 Broadway, New York City

(Take #6 train to Wall St., or #1 or R trains to Rector St.)

- 10:30 am Coffee and Conversation
- 11:00 am Panel Presentation and Audience Dialogue – speakers TBA
- 12:30 pm Solidarity March to Zuccotti Park
- 1:00 pm Intergenerational Salute to Occupy Wall St. (at Zuccotti Park)

Bring signs, banners, and wear your group/union colors!

Hosted by:

New York Network for Action on Medicare and Social Security
New York City and New York State Alliance for Retired Americans
New York Statewide Senior Action Council

Co-Sponsors [list in formation]:

Brooklynwide Interagency Council for the Aging, DC 37 Retirees Association, Goddard-Riverside Community Center, Gray Panthers NYC Network, Healthcare-Now NYC, Metro NY Health Care for All Campaign, National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare, Restore the American Promise, Strengthen Social Security Campaign, Social Security Works, 1199SEIU Retired Members Division

RSVPs requested; more info: metrohealth@igc.org; 212-925-1829