

My name is Heather Yoon and I am from Irvine, California. As a rising senior at Brandeis University in Waltham, MA, I am majoring in International & Global Studies and Politics, with minors in Legal Studies, Women & Gender Studies, and East Asian Studies. This past semester, I studied abroad in the Netherlands and had the great opportunity to work as a legal intern and trial monitor for the Coalition for the International Criminal Court in The Hague. I look forward to using my experiences to advocate for the rights of older persons with Gray Panthers this summer.
