

THE NGO COMMITTEE ON AGEING-NY

and

THE NGO CSW SUBCOMMITTEE ON OLDER WOMEN (SCOW)

INVITE YOU TO A PROGRAM DURING
THE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN

“ENABLING OLDER WOMEN
THROUGH INCREASED ACCESS TO EDUCATION, TRAINING, AND TECHNOLOGY”

Katya Vasilaky, PhD

World Bank funded project on female social networks, mentoring, and cash crop production in rural Uganda

Thomas Kamber, PhD

Executive Director, Older Adults Technology Services (OATS)

OATS engages, trains and supports older adults in using technology to enhance their civic and social lives.
The National Broadband Plan released by the Federal Communications Commission on March 15th 2010 prominently features OATS as a model program promoting broadband adoption and inclusion by senior citizens.

820 2ND AVENUE, 2ND Floor (between 43rd and 44th)

(National Council of Jewish Women Office)

Wednesday March 2, 2011

1:00 TO 3:00 pm